INTRODUCTORY NOTES.

THE PHI BETA KAPPA SOCIETY was originally founded at William and Mary's College, in Virginia. The Alpha of Connecticut was organized at Yale College, Nov. 13th, 1780, and that of Massachusetts, at Harvard University, about the same time, by charter from the Alpha of Virginia. The Alpha of New Hampshire was instituted at Dartmouth College, in 1787, by charter from the Alphas of Massachusetts and Connecticut, the original Alpha of Virginia having in the mean time become extinct. The branches of the Society at the present time, are nine in number, viz.

- Alpha of Connecticut, at Yale College, New Haven ;
 - Alpha of Massachusetts, at Harvard University, Cambridge ;
 - Alpha of New Hampshire, at Dartmouth College, Hanover ;
 - Alpha of New York, at Union College, Schenectady ;
 - Alpha of Maine, at Bowdoin College, Brunswick ;
 - Alpha of Rhode Island, at Brown University, Providence ;
 - Alpha of Ohio, at Western Reserve College, Hudson ;
 - Beta of Connecticut, at Trinity College, Hartford ;
 - Gamma of Connecticut, at Wesleyan University, Middletown.

In this CATALOGUE, besides the present or latest residences, are given the places of original residence of the members, printed in Italics, immediately following their names. The residence while in College, as ascertained by reference to the annual Catalogues and the Society's lists, has been assumed as the original residence, in all cases where the fact is not known to be otherwise. Where it is the same as the present or latest residence, it is not separately expressed.

After the names of places in Connecticut, the usual designation of the state is omitted.

Corrections for the next Catalogue are respectfully solicited. Particular attention is invited to marks of decease, to titles, honorary, official and professional, and to places of residence, latest or original. Communications may be addressed to the Librarian of Yale College.
